

Holiday Remembrance

By Jeanne M. Harper, MPS

New Year's is coming ... will you be prepared?

Zorba the Greek's philosophy was when everything was bleak and hopeless, DANCE!
That showed the power of the human spirit to persevere, and love life in spite of its loss, pain and disappointments. Consider completing this form and take hold of the new year!

During the past year:

1. I am proud of these things I have accomplished:

2. I have left these things undone:

3. I have these regrets:

As I go into the New Year:

1. I choose to leave behind:

2. I hope to accomplish:

3. I choose to take with me:

4. I will assume responsibility for my own life in these ways:
