

Are you mourning the death of a loved one or close friend?

Life After Death

The Sunday, April 11 worship service celebrates the promises of what we have to look forward to after death.

Grief Workshop

Seven Mondays, beginning April 12 through May 24, from 2-4 p.m.

Candlelight Memorial Service

The Thursday, April 15 service at 4 p.m. celebrates an opportunity to remember and honor loved ones who have died.

One on One Encouragement and Support

Our Stephen Ministers are highly trained individuals who are available to listen, offer support and walk alongside those experiencing seasons of loss. They're available to meet for an hour a week by phone or at a place that's mutually convenient.

Julia Ann (Judy) Norman was born November 29, 1933, in Arkansas City, Kansas, just north of the Oklahoma border, and died February 22, 2021, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Charles Edward (Chuck) Norman was born July 3, 1933, in El Reno, Oklahoma, and died August 8, 2020.

Chuck and Judy were married for just over 65 years when Chuck passed away. Chuck and Judy met at Oklahoma State University, and married shortly after college. They moved fifteen times in fifteen years prior to settling down in Dallas, Texas, in 1968. They were both active in many activities at Park Cities Baptist Church and loved traveling with their children during the summer months. They moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado, in 2004 and enjoyed walks at Garden of the Gods Park, as well as drives through the mountains.

Chuck and Judy both had a deep faith in the Lord, and even in the most difficult of days knew that God would journey with them. They are now both reunited with their son, Jim Norman, who passed away in 2012.

Chuck and Judy are survived by their daughter, Mary Norman; Judy's brother, Calvin Vogt, and sister-in-law, Carol Vogt.

Memorials may be made to the Brain Injury Association of America or Parkinson's Foundation.

2 Timothy 4:7–8

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Romans 8:38–39

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
